ARTICLE XII - FORCE MAJEURE

12.1 Force Majeure. Neither Pearl nor CLIENT shall be liable for any loss or damage of any nature suffered or incurred as a result of any failure or delay in performance hereunder, except for payment obligations of CLIENT hereunder, due to Force Majeure (as defined below). For the purpose of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" shall mean any circumstance, event, act, or force not resulting from the fault or negligence of the affected Party which is beyond the reasonable control of such Party, including, but not limited to: any strikes, lockouts, or labor disputes; fires or explosions; acts of God; acts or omissions of third parties not under the control of Pearl or CLIENT; acts of the public enemy; riots; incendiaries; sabotage; terrorist activity or threat of terrorist activity which, under the circumstances, would be considered to be a precursor to actual terrorist activity; economic sanction or embargo; earthquake; abnormal weather conditions, action of the elements, floods, lightning, or wind; unavailability of equipment, supplies, or products; interference by civil or military authorities; epidemics, compliance with the laws of the United States of America or with the orders or policies, laws, or rules of any governmental

A Party shall not be deemed to have suffered an event of Force Majeure due to the failure of equipment which that Party, or its agents, employees, or assigns, is responsible for operating or maintaining if the equipment has not been operated or maintained in accordance with industry standard practices.

12.2 Effect of Force Majeure. If a Party is rendered wholly or partly unable to perform its obligations under this Agreement because of Force Majeure, that Party shall be excused from the performance that is affected by the Force Majeure to the extent so affected, provided that:

- a. The Party affected by such Force Majeure, as soon as reasonably practical after the occurrence of the claimed Force Majeure event, gives prompt verbal notice to the other Party, followed by a written notice, fully describing the particulars of the occurrence.
- b. The suspension of performance is of no greater scope and of no longer duration than is required by the Force Majeure; and
- c. The Party affected by the Force Majeure shall in good faith use such effort as is reasonable under all the circumstances known to the Party at the time to remove or remedy the cause(s) of the Force Majeure and to mitigate the impact of its suspension of performance.

ARTICLE XIII - DISPUTE RESOLUTION

13.1 General Provisions. Every dispute of any kind or nature between the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or a Party's performance hereunder (each a "Dispute") shall be resolved in accordance with this Article XIII, to the extent permitted by law.

13.2 Referral to Senior Management.

- a. Upon the occurrence of a Dispute, either Party may deliver a notice to the other Party requesting that the Dispute be referred to the senior management of Pearl and CLIENT (a "Dispute Notice"). Any such Dispute Notice shall include the names of the senior management of the party nominated to attempt to resolve the Dispute and a schedule of their availability during the thirty (30) day period following the date of the Dispute Notice. Any such Dispute Notice shall be delivered within a reasonable time after the Dispute arises, but in no event shall it be delivered less than thirty (30) days before the institution of legal or equitable proceedings based on such Dispute would be barred by any applicable statute of limitations.
- b. Within seven (7) days after receipt of a Dispute Notice, the other Party shall provide a notice to the requesting Party indicating the names of the senior management of the Party nominated to attempt to resolve the Dispute, and a schedule of their availability during the remainder of the thirty (30) day period following the date of the Dispute Notice.
- c. During the remainder of the thirty (30) day period following delivery of the Dispute Notice, the nominated members of the senior management of Pearl and CLIENT shall meet as frequently as reasonably practicable and shall attempt in good faith to resolve the Dispute.

13.3 Arbitration

- a. Any Dispute that has not been resolved within thirty (30) days of the delivery of the Dispute Notice shall be submitted to arbitration pursuant to the procedures set forth in this Section 13.3 and pursuant to the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association (the "Arbitration Rules"). If and to the extent that the provisions of this Section 13.3 are inconsistent with the Arbitration Rules, the provisions of this Section 13.3 shall control any arbitration proceeding to the extent permitted by law.
- b. Either CLIENT or Pearl may make demand for arbitration in writing to the other Party, setting forth the nature of the Dispute, the amount involved, if any, the remedies sought, and the name of the arbitrator appointed by the Party demanding arbitration. The demand for arbitration shall be made within a reasonable time after the expiration of the thirty (30) day period following delivery of the Dispute Notice, and in no event shall it be made when institutions of legal or equitable proceedings based on such Dispute would be barred by any applicable statute of limitations.

c. Within fifteen (15) days after any demand for arbitration under Section 15.3(a), the other Party shall name its arbitrator, or if, if such Party fails to do so, an arbitrator will be nominated on behalf of such Party in accordance with the Arbitration Rules. The two (2) arbitrators so selected shall name a third arbitrator within ten (10) days after selection of the second arbitrator, or, in the absence of agreement on a third arbitrator by the two (2) arbitrators so appointed, a third arbitrator shall be appointed in accordance with the Arbitration Rules.

d. The arbitration proceeding shall be held in Delaware, or such other place as may be mutually agreed upon by the Parties and shall commence not later than ninety (90) days after the date of the demand for arbitration. The award of the arbitrators shall be made not later than thirty (30) days after the date of closing of the proceeding, or if oral hearings have been waived, after the date of transmitting the final statements and proof to the arbitrators; provided, however, that in no event shall any award be made later than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the date of the demand for arbitration. The arbitrators shall be required to render a reasoned decision in writing accompanying any award.

e. In the event the arbitrators find a breach of this Agreement to have occurred and be continuing, the arbitrators shall have express authority to order specific performance of this Agreement or an injunction of acts in violation of this Agreement, and to order the payment of damages to compensate the non-defaulting Party for any loss to the extent allowed in Article VIII. Any payment of damages ordered by the arbitrators shall bear interest at the Prime Rate as set forth in the Wall Street Journal, which interest shall accrue daily, from the date as of which such damages are calculated to the date on which the Party entitled thereto receives payment thereof in full. The award to the arbitrators shall be final, except as otherwise provided by applicable law. Judgment upon such award may be entered on behalf of the prevailing Party in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and application may be made by such Party to any such court for judicial acceptance of such award and an order of enforcement.

f. The administrative and arbitrator's costs shall be borne by the unsuccessful Party unless the arbitrators by their award shall otherwise provide, but otherwise each Party shall bear its own costs, including attorney's fees.

13.4 No Other Remedies. Unless an Event of Default unrelated to a Dispute occurs, during the conduct of dispute resolution procedures pursuant to this Article XIII, no Party shall exercise any other remedies hereunder with respect to the Dispute; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 13.4 shall be construed to prevent Pearl from suspending performance of the Services in the event that CLIENT fails to pay undisputed amounts due and payable to Pearl under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV - GOVERNING LAW & JURISDICTION

14.1 Governing Law and Jurisdiction. These Clauses shall be governed by the laws of each EEA "Member State", provided such law allows for third-party beneficiary rights. The Parties agree that this shall be the law of the Member State in which the CLIENT is established. This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Member State. The Parties specifically consent and agree that, except as otherwise provided in Article XIII, the courts of the Member State will have exclusive jurisdiction over each of the Parties and over the subject matter of any such proceedings. Additionally, except as otherwise provided in Article XIII, the prevailing Party in any legal action relating to this Agreement will be entitled to an award of its costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith, including all attorneys' and other professional fees and expenses.

ARTICLE XV – ENTIRE AGREEMENT; SEVERABILITY; ASSIGNMENT

15.1 Entire Agreement; Order of Precedence. This Agreement (including all exhibits) is the entire agreement between You and Us regarding the Services and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, proposals or representations, written or oral, concerning the same subject matter. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and signed by both Parties. Except to the extent prohibited by applicable GDPR regulations, HITECH Standards or other applicable laws or regulations, in the event of a conflict between the DPA, or this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement will control.

15.2 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal or unenforceable, such provision shall be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that the remainder of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect and enforceable.

15.3 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor the licenses granted hereunder are assignable or transferable by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party; any attempt to do so shall be null and void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Party shall have the right to assign all (but not less than all) of its interest in this Agreement to a subsidiary or affiliate or to an entity with which it has merged or consolidated or transferred all or substantially all of its assets, stock or business to which this Agreement relates; provided, however, that the assignee shall assume in writing all of the assignor's rights and obligations under this Agreement.

15.4 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the respective successors and permitted assigns of the Parties.
